

. This Petition can be conveniently disposed of since the Petitioner Society has deposited an amount of Rupees Two lakhs in this Court pursuant to the interim orders passed on 21st April 2004. An Appeal has already been filed before the Tribunal constituted under the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. The Petitioner Society can pursue its remedy in the Appeal. The amount which has been deposited in this Court shall be transferred to Respondent No.2 within four weeks from today. Respondent No.2 will retain this amount subject to the final orders passed by the Tribunal in the Appeal. However, it is made clear that this amount has been deposited by the Petitioner Society without prejudice to its rights and contentions in the Appeal.
